The Promoter provides no refund for Attendee cancellations in full or part; including when an Attendee has been requested to leave the Festival, for breaching these terms and rules of the venue, except as required by Australian Consumer Laws.

Tickets to the Festival are only available through the official Winton's Way Out West Fest website and sites officially approved by the Promoter. Any sites approved will be listed on the Winton's Way Out West Fest website. Tickets are not to be resold or offered for resale or used for any promotional purposes without prior written consent from the Promoter. Tickets in breach of this condition will be deemed unauthorised and entry may be refused. Tickets purchased through unapproved sites or ticket sellers will not be honoured.

Attendees at the Festival grant permission for a search of personal belongings prior to entry and at the venue. Refusal to be searched will constitute a breach of these terms and entry will not be permitted. Possession of prohibited items at any time may incur confiscation of the goods, refusal of entry or a request to leave the Festival.

Prohibited items include: animals, food and drinks, alcohol, illicit drugs, weapons and flammables. The promoter may deem certain items to be restricted in certain areas. Smoking is not permitted in any part of the Festival unless in designated smoking areas. Illegal activity or possession of illegal goods may result in notification to authorities.
